Priority for vessels mooring at Fishermen's Terminal will be given to those vessels actively engaged in bona fide commercial fishing operations (see Item 2000 (A)). Second priority will be given to vessels actively engaged in commercial marine operations (see Item 2000 (B) and (C)), and vessels that were actively engaged in commercial fishing operations but which became inactive. Third priority will be given to vessels not actively engaged in commercial fishing or marine operations, including non-commercial vessels (see item 2000 (D)). (2) The Port shall be the exclusive judge of whether a particular vessel is actively engaged in bona fide commercial operations. Note 1: A vessel otherwise qualifying as active within the meaning of Item 2000 (A), but which is prohibited from engaging in commercial fishing operations by reason of government mandated closure of the fishery (ies) in which it would otherwise operate, shall be considered as actively engaged in bona fide commercial fishing operations. Note 2: Vessels that were actively engaged in commercial fishing operations but become inactive will be charged the commercial moorage rate. Note 3: Vessels that were actively engaged in commercial marine operations but become inactive will be charged the non-commercial moorage rate. (B) LIMITATIONS ON USE OF TERMINAL Vessels not engaged in commercial fishing or marine operations (including recreational vessels) shall not displace vessels engaged in commercial fishing or commercial marine operations. Non-commercial vessels will be placed on a slip-by-slip basis in vacant moorage areas, the number as deemed appropriate by Fishermen's Terminal management and as determined by staff to be in a manner that fits into the best interests of the commercial fishing community. (C) MOORAGE AT A WORKING TERMINAL Owners and operators of non-commercial vessels will be informed that assigned moorage may be affected by the customary activities (e.g., noise, light, odors) at a working terminal. All reasonable steps shall be taken to maintain the industrial nature and function of Fishermen's Terminal and to minimize the effects of vessels not engaged in commercial fishing or commercial marine operations on the industrial nature and function of Fishermen's Terminal. Continued on next page	ITEM *2400 <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ■ ★★★
